INSTRUCTIONS

1. Preparation of application for registration of a firearm.--

It is preferred that this form be prepared by use of a typewriter, using carbon paper to make an exact duplicate. Pen and ink may be used, but under no circumstances may a lead pencil be used. The form is to be prepared in duplicate and submitted to the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D. C. 20224.

2. Persons required to register firearms.--Every person possessing a firearm shall register on this form, in duplicate, with the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D. C. 20224, the number and other mark identifying such firearm, together with his name, address, place where such firearm is usually kept, and place of business or employment, and, if such person is other than a natural person, the name and home address of an executive officer thereof. In case the firearm is merely in the custody of an employee, such as a watchman, the actual owner should execute this form. No person shall be required to register a firearm which he has previously registered or he has acquired by transfer or importation or has made, if the provisions of chapter 53 of the Internal Revenue Code applied to such transfer, importation, or making, as the case may be, and if the provisions which applied thereto were complied with. (Sec. 5841, I.R.C.)

3. Disposition of application for registration of a firearm.--The duplicate form, after the registration has been accepted, will be returned to the registrant by the Director, Alcohol & Tobacco Tax Division, and the original will be retained in the National Firearms Registration & Transfer Record, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, Washington, D. C.

4. Stolen or lost firearms or documents.--Immediately upon the discovery that the firearm or registration form has been stolen, lost, or destroyed, the person losing possession will immediately upon discovery of the theft, loss, or destruction, report the matter to the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D. C. 20224. The report will show in detail the circumstances of the theft, loss, or destruction and will include all known facts which may serve to identify the firearm or document.

5. Definitions.--

(A) Felony--Any offense punishable by death or imprisonment for a term exceeding one year.

(B) Firearm--The term "firearm" means a shotgun having a barrel or barrels of less than 18 inches in length, or a rifle having a barrel or barrels of less than 16 inches in length, or any weapon made from a rifle or shotgun (whether by alteration, modification, or otherwise) if such weapon as modified has an overall length of less than 26 inches, or any other weapon, except a pistol or revolver, from which a shot is discharged by an explosive if such weapon is capable of being concealed on the person, or a machine gun, and includes a muffler or silencer for any firearm whether or not such firearm is included within the foregoing definition. (Sec. 5848, I.R.C.)

6. Scope of firearms registration provisions.--The provisions of section 5841 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to registration of firearms, are applicable to persons residing within the United States (i.e., the several States and the District of Columbia).

7. PENALTIES.--Any person who violates or fails to comply with any of the requirements of chapter 53 of the Internal Revenue Code shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than $2,000 or be imprisoned for not more than 5 years, or both, in the discretion of the court. Moreover, any firearm involved in any violation of the provisions of chapter 53 of the Internal Revenue Code or any regulations promulgated thereunder shall be subject to seizure and forfeiture.
